Nomination Form

Your Name..........................................
Address.............................................

Phone/Fax..........................................
Email..................................................

Transnational Corporation nominated_________________________________

Reasons why you think your nominee is the worst TNC in NZ in 2008 (see overleaf for criteria)

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

Please use the other side of this form if you need more space. Details of the award are on the other side.
Criteria:
The criteria for judging are by assessing the transnational (a corporation which is 25% or more foreign-owned) that has the most negative impact in each or all of the following categories:

Economic Dominance - Monopoly, profiteering, tax dodging, cultural imperialism

People - Unemployment, impact on tangata whenua, impact on women, impact on children, abuse of workers/conditions, health and safety of workers and the public

Environment - Environmental damage, abuse of animals

Political interference – Interference in democratic processes, running an ideological crusade

Judging:
The judges for 2008 are: Geoff Bertram, from Wellington, a Victoria University economist; Brian Turner, from Christchurch, President of the Methodist Church and social justice activist; Paul Corliss, from Christchurch, a life member of the Rail and Maritime Transport Union; Cee Payne-Harker, from Dunedin, Industrial Services Manager for the NZ Nurses’ Organisation and health issues activist; Christine Dann, from Banks Peninsula, a writer and researcher; and Bryan Gould, from Bay of Plenty, a former Waikato University Vice-Chancellor. They will be given a shortlist of finalists. The winner(s) will be announced at an Auckland event in early 2009.

Nominations:
You can nominate the same transnational as last year as long as the nomination is about their misdeeds in 2008. Please send as much detail as you can, including press cuttings and reports, but you do not have to do all the research. Just quote sources if you can.

Accomplice Award:
You may also nominate an organisation (not an individual) which has been the worst Accomplice in 2008 in aiding and abetting transnational corporations in New Zealand to behave as described in the criteria. The Accomplice’s award is in addition to the Worst Transnational Corporation award and will not necessarily be awarded every year. You may nominate for either or both awards.

Meddler’s Award
For election year only, there is a new Meddler’s Award for the transnational corporation which, judged on the same criteria as for the Roger Award itself, has the most negative impact on the direction or electoral process of the election campaign.

Nominations close on October 31, 2008. Send your nomination to:

The Roger Award, Box 2258, Christchurch e-mail cafca@chch.planet.org.nz